

The Utilization of Baccalaureate Students to Strengthen Tutoring Programs in Community Colleges

Presented by:

Paul Kavanaugh, Ph.D.
Senior Strategic Research Development
Associate

Leslie Jones, Ed.D.
Director, UTRGV Learning Center

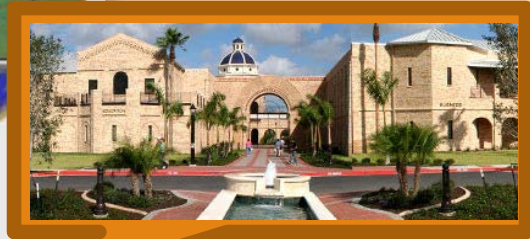

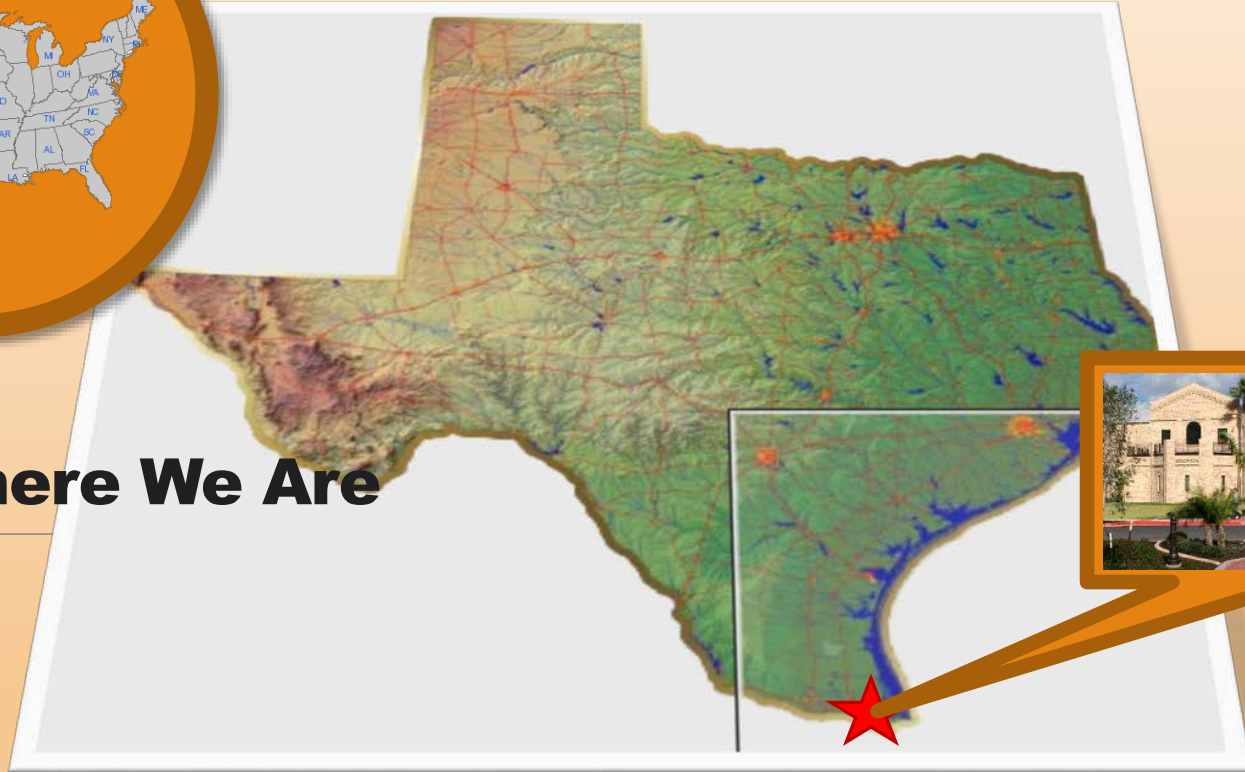

Angelica Fuentes, Ph.D.
TSC Dean of College Preparatory College

UTRGV

Where We Are

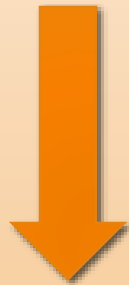

The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley
Texas Southmost College
Brownsville, Texas 78520

The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) and Texas Southmost College (TSC) are federally certified Hispanic Serving Institutions.

UTRGV and TSC serve more than 25,000 students,
~90% of whom are Hispanic.

In addition, almost 50% of all UTRGV and TSC students receive Pell grants.

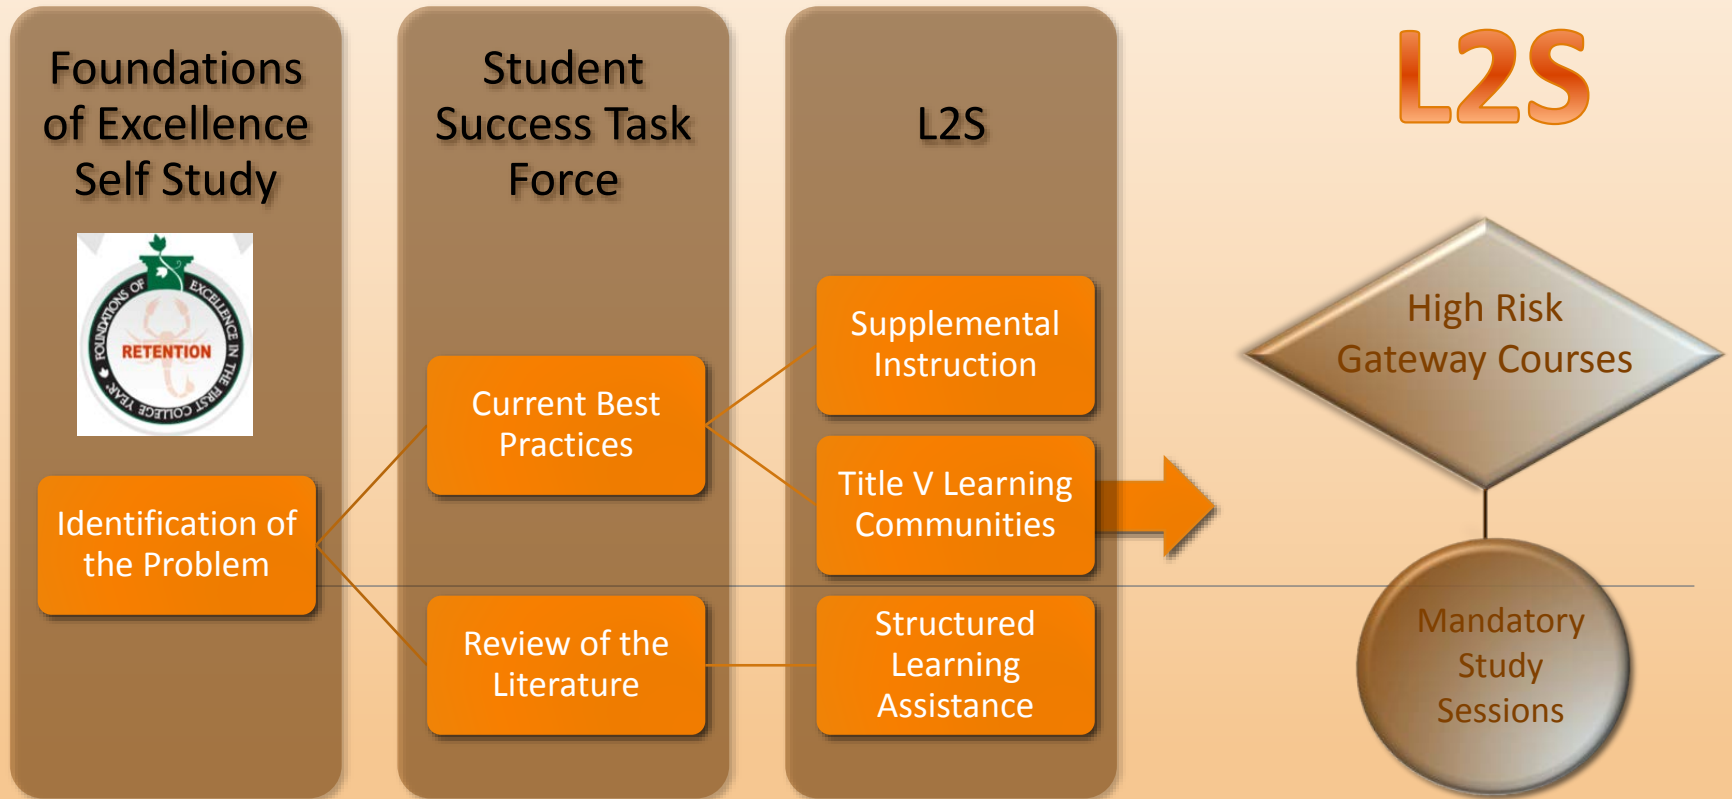

TITLE V LEARNING COMMUNITIES

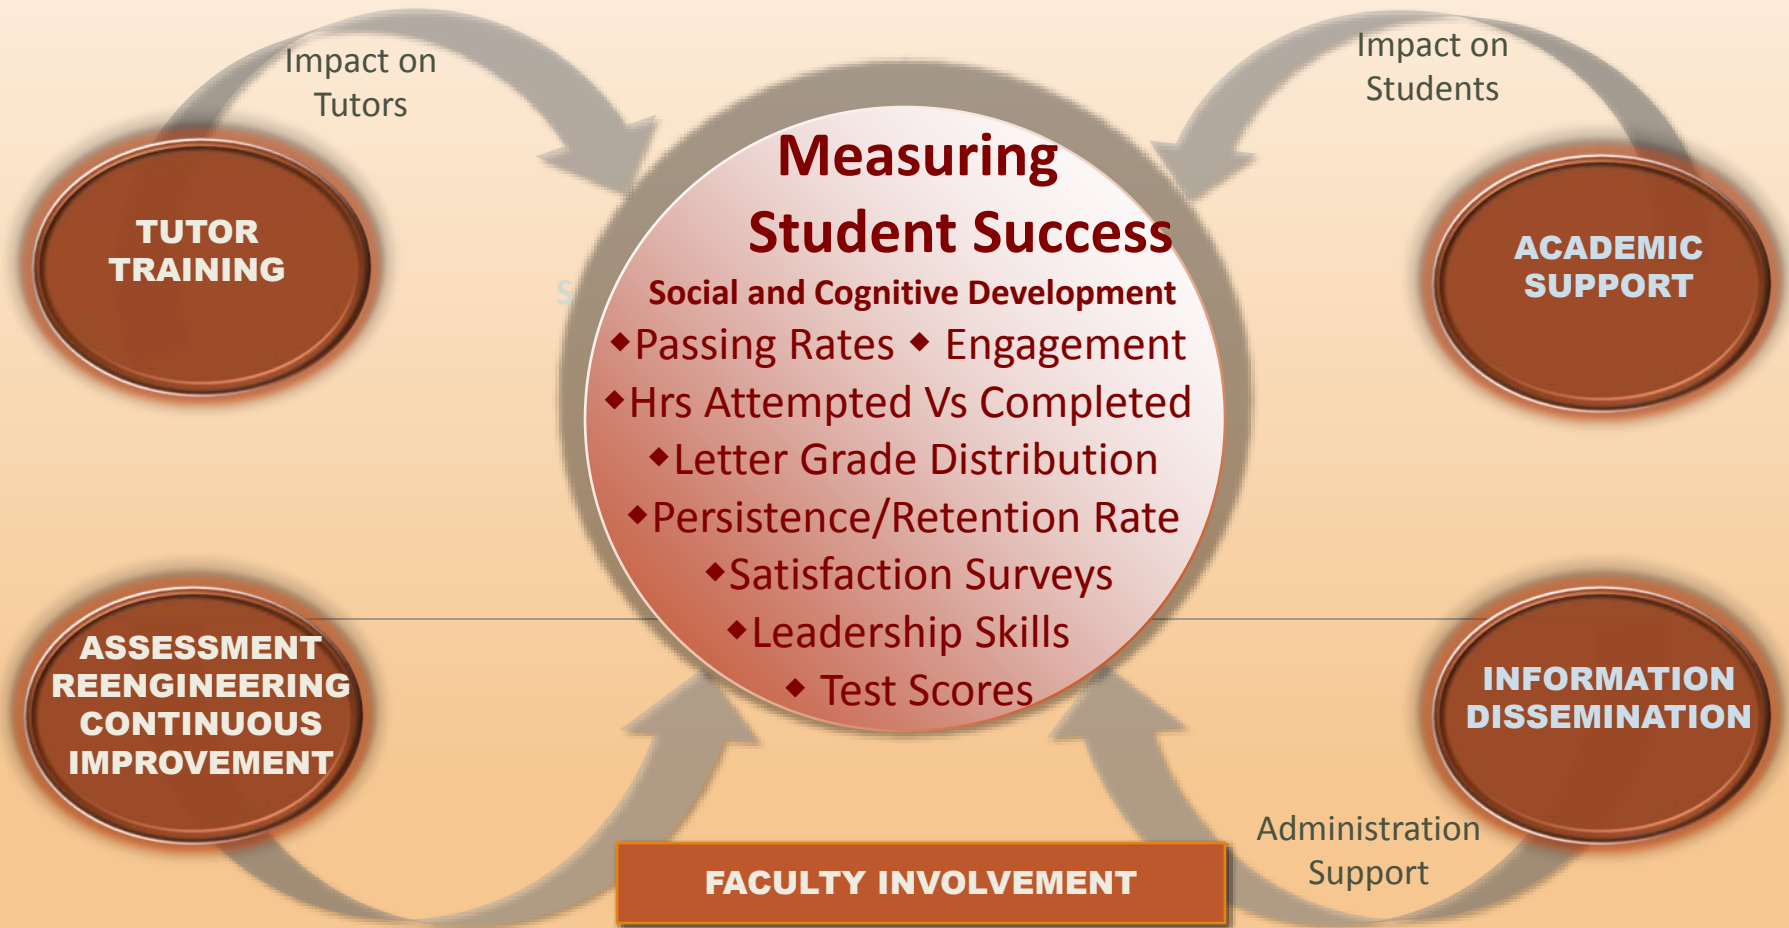

L2S

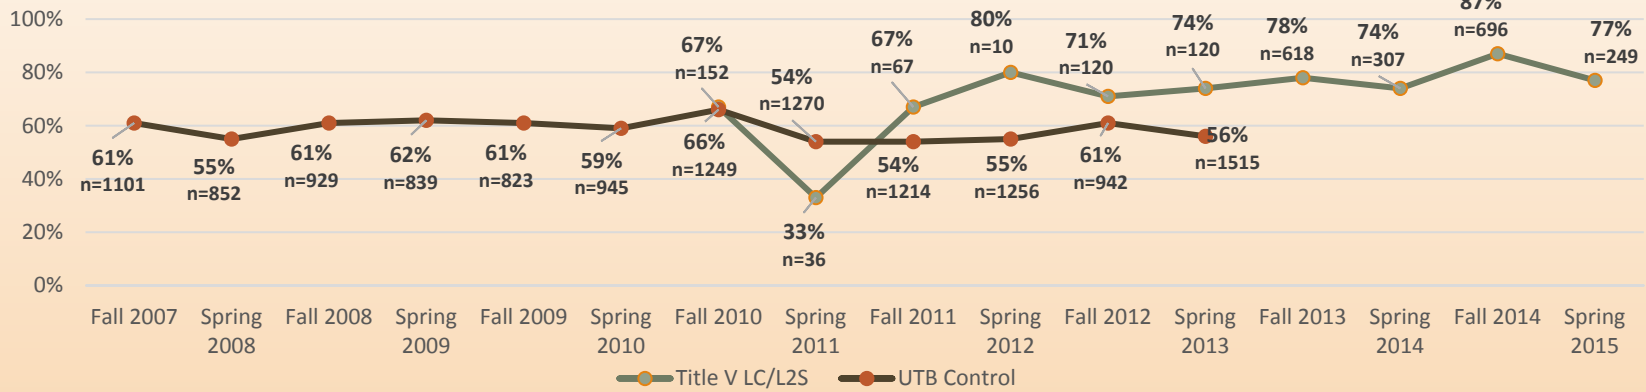

Model Development

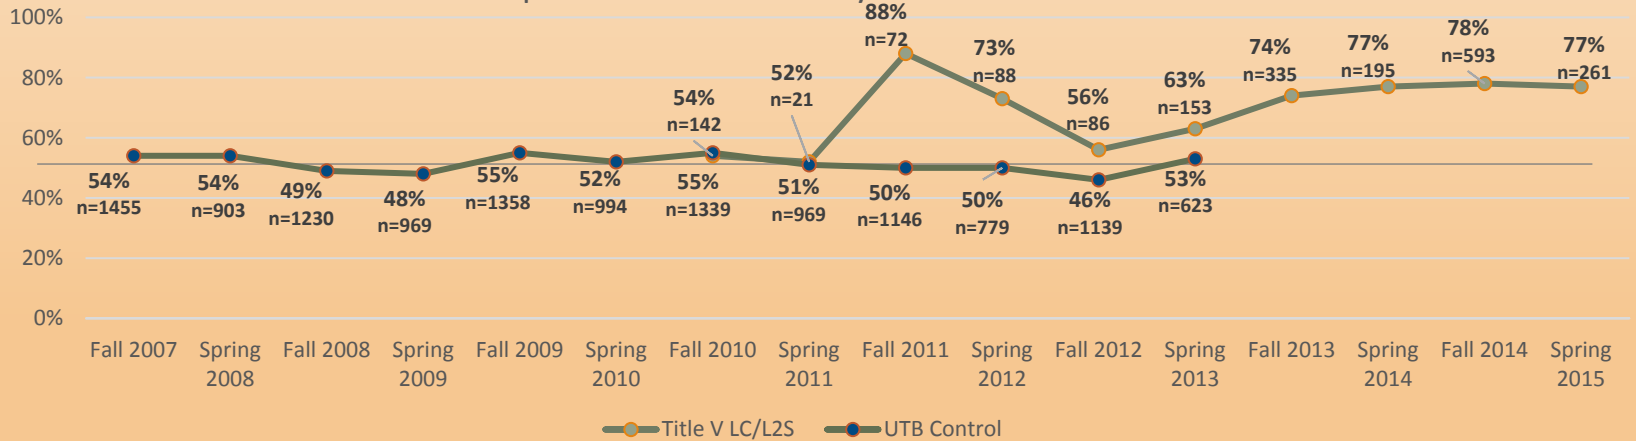

360° Assessment Plan

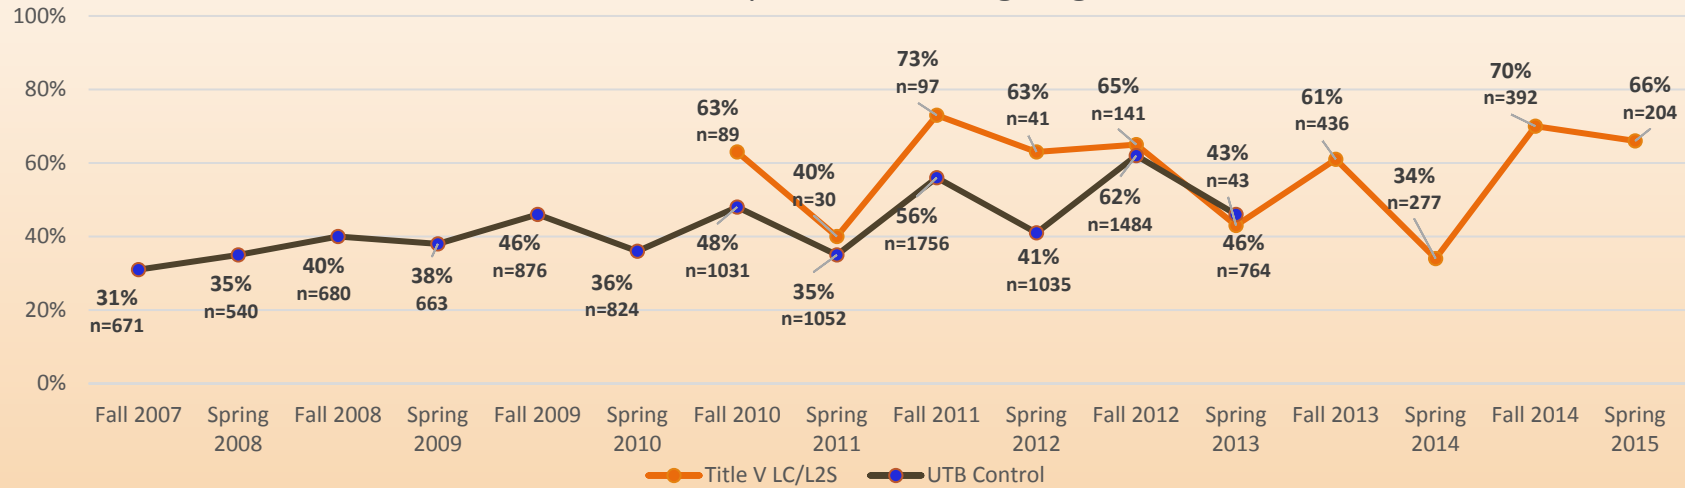

Pass Rate Comparison for Composition I

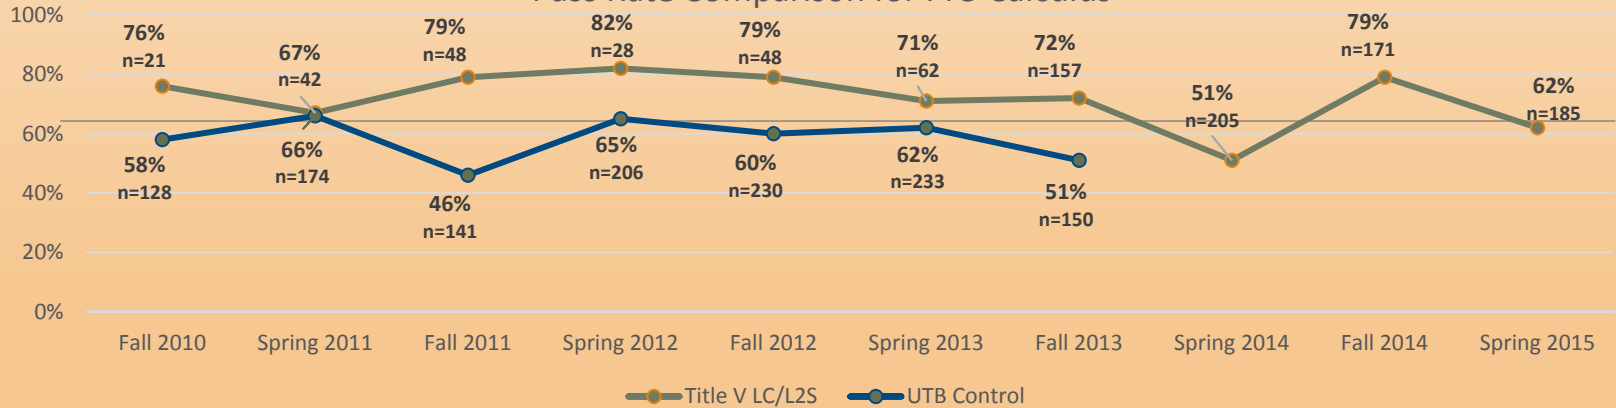

Pass Rate Comparison for U.S. History to 1877

Pass Rate Comparison for College Algebra

Pass Rate Comparison for Pre-Calculus

Expansion and Collaboration with a Community College

DEVELOPING HUMAN CAPITAL, BUILDING CAPACITY AND A SUSTAINABILITY PLAN

4 year students tutoring 2 year students

4 year students mentoring 2 year students to become tutors

2 year students who transfer to 4 year continue to tutor at 2 year

Q&A

