

Inviting Users to the LINCS Community

- Log in to LINCS Community and choose the “My LINCS” tab

- Go to section on the right side of the page under your profile picture labeled “Invite a Colleague”

- Enter the email address of the person you want to invite in the blank section and choose “Send invite”. An email invitation will then be sent letting them know that they have been invited, by you, to join the community.

- To review invitations you've sent, simply choose "View your invites". You will see the following options:

Home > My account

Invitations

accepted pending expired new invitation

No invitations available.